Habitat for Humanity of York County Invites Community to CEO Build Home Dedication with Cunningham Family

ROCK HILL, S.C. — Habitat for Humanity of York County is delighted to announce the Home Dedication Ceremony with the Cunningham family on Sunday, December 14, 2025, at 3:00 PM. The celebration will be held at the family’s new home at 226 Pursley Street, Rock Hill, SC, marking a joyful milestone as the Cunninghams prepare to spend their first Christmas in a home of their very own.

What: CEO Build Home Dedication Ceremony

When: Sunday, December 14, 2025 at 3:00 PM

Where: 226 Pursley Street, Rock Hill, SC 29732

This dedication commemorates the completion of the CEO Build, an annual event that brings together executives and community leaders from across York County to build strength, stability, and affordable homeownership alongside a local Habitat family. This year’s CEOs’ companies traded their corporate meeting rooms for tool belts to help construct the Cunningham home, demonstrating their commitment to investing in a stronger, more equitable community.

The ceremony will feature remarks from CEO Build participants, community partners, and the Cunningham family, followed by dedication of the home, the presentation of keys, and opportunities to tour the completed space.

For Keosha Cunningham, a dedicated mother who partnered with Habitat to build a brighter future for her children, this moment means everything. “This will be our first Christmas in a place that is truly ours,” Keosha shared. “Having a safe, stable home for the holidays is the greatest gift I could ask for. We are so grateful to Habitat and every leader who helped make this possible.”

Habitat for Humanity of York County celebrates the Cunningham family's achievement and extends heartfelt thanks to the CEO Build sponsors, volunteers, and partners whose generosity has made this "Home for the Holidays" possible.
